A CURE FOR SNAKE BITES. A mountaineer named Vincent, who lives on Lookout Mountain, near Dur- Everything else in the Watch, Clock ham, Tenn., appeared in that village to find it excited over a mad dog. He drove all the villiagers indoors and unarmed awaited the coming of the dog, which, siter a desperate struggle, he strangled. He was bitten three times, splying to the wounds a poisonous weed known to the mountaineers as "gall of the earth." He was healed and to further demonstrate the curative properties of the weed he permitted a opperhead and a rattlesnake to bite him and was successfully healed. Vin-cent went to a picnic at Lulu lake on Lookout mountain with three rattlesnakes. In the presence of the crowd he worried the snakes making them bite him until they would do so no more. He finally put his tongue in the snake's mouth. He begged those present to let the snake bite them, guaranteeing a cure. A young man present let himself be struck twice by the reptile and then applied the weed to the bite and ate a portion of it, no bad effects result ing. The ignorant mountaineers are excited over Vincent's acts. On Saturday he cured a young man who was attacked by a copperhead although it was two hours before he reached him. A pointer dog belonging to a prominent citizen of Chattanooga, while hunting was bitten by a copperhead. An appli-cation of the weed and a small portion mixed in milk cured the dog.

Troublesome to the Army. During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Colera and Diarrnosa Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such a quick relief. It is for sale by all druggists.
